Avolition, as a symptom of various forms of psychopathology, is the decrease in the motivation to initiate and perform self-directed purposeful activities. Such activities that appear to be neglected usually include routine activities, including hobbies, going to work and/or school, and most notably, engaging in social activities.

Writers and narrative theorists often speak of Archetypes. When they do, Jung and Campbell and the Hero's Journey quickly come to mind. And yet, if pressed, most writers would admit they don't really have a solid grip on what an archetype is, where they come from, and how they can or should be used in a story.
